

Become a freelance story editor

... and help authors tell better stories

If you've ever dreamed of editing novels for a living, Club Ed can help you make that dream come true. Our classes and other resources will support you on your journey.

CHECK OUT THE CLUB ED COURSE CATALOG HERE.

Sign up for the free Club Ed newsletter for a 10% discount on your first class with Club Ed.

You can go at your own pace with classes intended for self-study. If you prefer instructor feedback, try an instructor-led class. Or, choose a combination of self-paced and instructor-led classes. And don't forget to check out the certificate program, designed to prepare you to offer paid developmental editing services for novelists.

If you're a beginner, get a quick start on understanding what developmental editing is, what you need to know to begin, and how to read like an editor. If you've never seen an edited novel manuscript, try the Naked Editing class, where you can see the process of developmental editing unfold.

If you're an established professional who wants help solving a thorny issue, pull up a beach chair. Many Club Ed classes are meant for experienced editors.
